If

Rudyard Kipling (1865-1936): Rudyard Kipling was an English journalist, short story writer, poet and novelist. Kipling was one of the most popular writers in the United Kingdom, in both prose and verse, in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. He was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1907 at the age of 42. He was the first writer writing in English to receive the prize.

This poem deals with advice given by father to his son.

Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;

If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,

But make allowance for their doubting too;

If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,

Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,

Or being hated, don't give way to hating,

And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:

If you can dream and not make dreams your master;

If you can think and not make thoughts, your aim;

If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster

And treat those two imposters just the same;

If you can bear to hear the truth, you've spoken, Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,

Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,

And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:

- keep ones head : not to get angry
- make allowance for: consider what others also have to say about something
- What does the poet call people who twist the truth to suit them?
  - be lied about :
    false things spoken
    about oneself by others
- give way tohating: allowhatred to takecontrol of oneself
- don't look good : not to be perfect
- talk too wise: show off one's knowledge
- triumph : victory
- imposter: one who deceives others by pretending to be someone else
- How should you react when someone lies about you and hates you?
- knaves : cunning or dishonest people
- truth twisted by someone: change the truth a little to gain some advantage

- keep one's virtue:
   keep one's goodness
   or morals under any condition
- lose the common touch: refuse to interact with common people
- count with you:
  be equally important
  to you
- unforgiving minutetime that does not wait for anyone
- sixty seconds'
   worth of distance
   run: make good use of every second without wasting.
- to be a man: to be a good, perfect human being

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings, nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute

With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And which is more you'll be a Man, my son!

- Rudyard Kipling
