

1.5 Nu-jo's Project

A spaceship settles in front of Akshay's house.

Hello. I'm Nu-jo from the planet Mars.

Hello. I'm Akshay. I can't believe my eyes. Are you real?

What do you mean 'real'? I'm here on my school project -- to study human body parts. I need help.

Oh! You too have projects! I'll help you. I have many charts, models, books and a tablet.

These models show human body parts.

POINTERS

- Here are some figures from Nu-jo's project. But sadly, he has made some mistakes in drawing and labelling them. Help him correct his mistakes.

2. Nu-jo is revising his project on body parts, using the Q & A (question and answer) method. Read the following and add more questions and answers on the same topic.

A

- Do birds have wings? Yes, they do.
- Does a lion have a trunk? No, it doesn't.
- Do elephants have ears? Yes. Big ears.
- Does a buffalo have tusks?
No, it doesn't have tusks
but it has horns.
- Does a fish have ears? No. it doesn't.

B

- Can a bull move its head? Yes, it can.
- Can a bull move its horn? No, it can't.
- Can a bull stand on its hind legs?
I don't know.
- Can lions fly? No, they can't.
- Can Akshay write with his right hand?
Yes. he can.
- Can Akshay write with his left hand?
No, he can't.

3. Look at the picture and describe the parts of the plant with the help of the labels.

LEARNING about LANGUAGE

TYPES OF SENTENCES

You know there are four types of sentences.

Statements : This is a friendly dog.

Questions : What's the time? Are you ready?

Commands or orders : Come here.

Exclamations : How nice!

- Find an example of each type of sentence from Nu-jo's story.

4. Read what Tara and her friends are saying.

5. Put the following words in alphabetical order.

- (1) forehead, eyelid, eyebrow, eyelash, elbow
- (2) cheek, chin, chest, waist, wrist
- (3) face, heel, hand, knee, arm, ankle
- (4) tusk, tail, trunk, stomach, back
- (5) horn, hoof, jaw, hind, front
- (6) whiskers, mane, paw, nose

6. Draw a picture of any bird or animal of your choice. Label it.

Find one more word to describe each body part you label. Examples : long whiskers, white feathers, etc.

Now describe your bird or animal in 3-5 sentences.